

POETRY.

Rain in the Heart.

If this were all—oh, if this were all,
That into each life some rain must fall,
There were fainter soba in the poet's rhyme;
There were fewer wrecks on the shores of time.

But tempests of woe pass over the soul,
Since winds of anguish we cannot control,
And shock after shock we are called on to bear,
Till the lips are white with the Levi's despair!

The shores of time with wrecks are strewn,
Into the ear comes ever a moan—
Wrecks of hopes that set sail with glee,
Wrecks of love sinking silently.

Many are hidden from the human eye,
Only God knoweth how deep they lie;
Only God heard when aro the cry,
"Help me to bear, oh help me to bear."

"Into each life some rain must fall,"
If this were all—oh, if this were all;
Yet there's a refuge from storm and blast,
Gloria Patri—we'll reach it at last.

Be strong, be strong, to my heart I cry,
The pearl in the wounded heart doth lie;
Rays of sunshine are given to all,
The "into each life some rain must fall."

Farm and Garden.

Agriculture is the General Pursuit of man; it is the basis of all others, and therefore, the most Useful and Honorable.

FARM NOTES.—It pays to raise corn for winter forage—plant in drills, a bushel to the acre. Cut stalks two feet from the ground, if large; cure in stacks tied at the top till the stalk is dry (some four weeks), then house, and not stack out for rains to damage the forage. Our barns and stock-sheds are generally poor and small. This is bad economy. Split more boards, and make large and tight sheds-roofs to protect both stock and stock-feed. Then cattle do better, and drop their manure under cover, and out of washing rains. One load of such manure is worth more than five loads of old weathered stuff, with all the salts of ammonia, potash, and lime taken out of it. A farmer who would sell fine mules of his own raising for copper cents and think them gold eagles, would not be more mistaken than thousands are, in regard to the true value of fertilizers. What all boys ten years old ought to know, their fathers have yet to learn. That is, the value of carbon and the elements of water in well-dripped out-door manure, of which they generally form ninety-eight per cent. Think of it, the precise things that form all manure are unknown to planters and farmers. Is this wisdom, or is it folly? Our best friends on the farm are named carbon, oxygen, hydrogen, nitrogen, phosphorus, and sulphur. To these add potash, magnesia, lime, iron, and chlorine, and you will have the elements of good manure.

BLACK AGAINST WHITE LABOR.—John H. Dent, of Georgia, in the plantation, gives his experience with black and white labor, which he has this year put to the test, side by side on his farm, having hired an equal number of each class of laborers under precisely the same contracts. The results are thus stated:

The negroes have made equally as good crops as the whites, were more attentive to field and lot duties, more compliant and obliging in everything required of them, and decidedly more adhering to their contracts; in a word, covering all points, they are much to be preferred to the white labor. The white laborers were contentious, seeking every advantage, fault-finding, and considered their contracts as something which he might turn into some speculation to his own advantage pecuniarily, or in saving him from labor. Their wants are insatiable, and their worst features are so soon as the crops have been made, commences with them, "they must begin to know about another year's contract." Before hinting it to their employers, they commence tampering with the negroes, telling them they have not been paid high enough for their services, and putting them up to exact more. There plans are to make a tool of the negro in carrying out their point: first, by making them dissatisfied and contentious, and after thus succeeding, and causing them to give up their places, where they have really done well, and finding out that the employer is firm in not yielding to their exactions, then the whites are willing to renew their former contracts.

Whether the white laborers were Southern, Northern, or foreign it is not stated. The writer adds the very important and suggestive remark that "there is a great deal in fact, in the management of men, some may get along better with the white negro, and vice versa."

Can be consulted on the following diseases, and diseases of a kindred nature, free of charge and in strict confidence.

Charges moderate, and within the reach of all. Office hours from 9 a. m. to 7 p. m.

RHEUMATISM and NEURALGIA.

In all arthritic complaints, as rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, etc., this practice is almost perfectly relieved—enormous swellings are reduced—limbs which have been contracted and stiff for years are relaxed. Cases of twenty, thirty and forty years' standing have been cured by me, after all other means have failed.

A great accomplishment is my triumph over pain, by which I can often, in a few moments, soothe and carry off the most excruciating sufferings.

If this system did nothing more than to relieve pain, it would stand superior to any other system extant.

CATARRH.

Stopped-up Head, Running of the Nose, constant hawking and spitting, constant blowing of the Nose.

Thousands suffer from that most annoying disagreeable complaint—Catarrh, without knowing what it is.

Often the secreted mucus flowing down the throat clogs up the lungs and lays the foundation for consumption.

The most skillful physicians fail to cure it. I cure any case of obstruction—stopped-up head—discharges of greenish, thick, thin or glairy mucus from the nose, internal or external—pain or fullness between the eyes—constant blowing of the nose—inflammation of the nasal passages,—ulceration of Schneiderian membrane, etc., in the course of a few days.

DEAFNESS.

Nervous Deafness, Noises in the Head, Otorrhoea—Otitis (discharge from Ear), Paralysis of Auditory Nerve.

I am daily treating all affections of the ear with the most gratifying results. Some who had paid aurists nearly $1,000 without benefit, have been cured by me in a few weeks at moderate expense.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.

Mercury, injudiciously used, has filled the earth with wrecks of humanity. Thousands suffer from its effects who have been unconsciously drugged by their physician. It is vain to attempt the cure of the majority of diseases while it remains in the body.

Although I have heard of several so-called antidotes for mercury in the human body, I have never yet seen a physician who could eliminate it from the system.

I can satisfy any patient or physician that I can absolutely extract mercury, lead, zinc, and other mineral poisons, in every case.

CANCERS.

Noli-ma-Tangere, Lupus, or Wolf Cancer, Scirrhus Cancer—Fungous Cancer, Rose Cancer—Spider Cancer.

I make a great specialty in the treatment of every description of cancer and tumors.

How many cancers and tumors are wrongfully treated by certain Charlatans styling themselves "Cancer Doctors."

After being pronounced incurable, I will take any one of these cases in hand, and make a permanent cure.

My terms for treating cancers, etc., will be based on the age and condition of the patient, and the positive certainty of cure.
